New Classification of Occupations in Romania

Monitorul Oficial al Romaniei No. 561 / 08.08.2011 has published Order No. 1832 / 856 / 2011 of the Minister of Labour, Family and Social Protection and of the President of the National Statistics Institute, approving of the Classification of Occupations in Romania (COR).

The Order approves of the new classification of occupations in Romania, which are divided into major groups according to skill level and skill specialisation in harmony with the national occupational structure.

As this legislative act stipulates, COR applies to all spheres of economic and social activity and is mandatory for all central and local public administration bodies, budgetary units, economic operators, irrespective of the form of ownership, non-profit organisations, trade unions, professional and political organisations, foundations, associations and other natural and legal entities carrying on their activity in the territory of Romania, whenever they fill in official documents and are required to specify their occupation.

The Classification of Occupations in Romania, which was approved under Order 138/1.949/1995 of the Minister of State, Minister of Labour and Social Protection, and of the Chairman of the National Statistics Commission, and the New Classification of Occupations in Romania shall be concurrently used until 31 December 2011 so as to provide for the smooth transition from the former to the latter legislative act.
